

HISTORIC ALES of SCOTLAND

+893719 SPEC 4 x 330 ml

Wholesale- $11.22 Hospitality $14.99

In a gift box adorned with ancient Celtic art and inscriptions comes 4 completely unique ales brewed following recipes from past millenniums.

(each gift pack contains a random 4 of the 5 following ales)

Fraoch Heather Ale

Brewed since 2000 BC using heather flowers instead of hops

“flowery-fruity bouquet, firmness of body with spice and apple notes in a dry wine-like finish “ Michael Jackson

Alba Scots Pine ale

Brewed with Scots pine and Spruce shoots – a tawny brown strong ale with spruce aroma, rich malty texture and complex wood flavours

Ebulum Elderberry Black Ale

Secondary fermented with elderberries

Kelpie Seaweed Ale

At least four hundred years ago, the coastal & Island farmers of Scotland used seaweed beds to grow their cereal crops. This barley produced very interesting flavours in the ale and whiskey they produced. Including bladderwrack seaweed in the mash tun along with organic barley gives this wholesome dark ale a distinctive flavour..

Grozet Gooseberry & Wheat Ale

Brewed with lager malt, wheat, bog myrtle and meadowsweet

Then secondary fermented with ripe Scottish gooseberries

Pale golden in colour with a refreshing fruit aroma, a fruity – wheat mid palate and a clean crisp finish